Re: Court Reporting & Litigation Support

Dear Mindy:

I want to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to you and the Kaplan Leaman Wolfe team for your excellent service over many years, and especially during my work with the Goldberg Segalla law firm. As you know, I was the founding partner of the firm here in Philadelphia when we opened our doors in August 2007. Since that time, our office has grown from 2 lawyers to more than 20, and the broad spectrum of clients we serve has expanded as well. This is my fourth decade of active litigation practice in Philadelphia, so when I moved to Goldberg Segalla I brought with me a great deal of knowledge and experience with many court reporting and litigation support companies. Your agency has consistently been among my top choices for deposition practice, and the reason for this selection is no mystery – your consistent record of excellent, timely service. I cannot recall a single instance in which I, or any of my fellow counsel, was not completely satisfied with the high level of service and professionalism demonstrated by your contractors and employees. I am also indebted to you for the personal attention you devote to every request from our firm, both in the initial delivery of services and thoughtful follow-up even when the work is done. For all of this, you have my lasting gratitude and appreciation for all that you do for our firm and our clients.

Sincerely yours,

Michael D. Brophy
